FORMER MINISTER IS CHARGED WITH BEING IMPLICATED IN THEFT

Arrested In Connection With Mail Robbery at Mt Vernon--Postal Inspectors Say $100,000 Was Recovered In Minister's House --Nearly All Money Recovered

(By The Associated Press)
MOUNT VERNON, Ill., Jan. 21.—Guy Kyle, former rector of the Free Methodist Church of Mount Vernon, who was arrested today in connection with the theft here last Friday of 31 packages of registered mail containing $185,000 in cash, confessed tonight, he was implicated in the robbery, postoffice inspectors announced.

The inspectors said Kyle accompanied them to one of his garages where they located $5,600 more of the stolen money, bringing the total amount recovered to about $183,000.

Kyle also implicated several others in the theft, according to the inspectors, who declined to go into the details of his confession. No additional arrests have yet been made it was said. Kyle's alleged confession followed a lengthy examination by inspectors Hitchcock, Rider and Gould. He had previously denied knowledge of the crime, answering the money was placed in his property without his knowledge. Four suspects arrested in connection with the theft were released after questioning.

Approximately $100,000 was recovered at the Kyle home where it was concealed in an egg crate, and the rest of the money in a garage.

Displayed Large Sums.

Suspicion was directed against the former rector this morning when Loren Williamson, Kyle's partner in the garage business, informed the inspectors that Kyle had been displaying large amounts of money in the last week.

Postoffice inspectors expressed the belief that the $27,000 in negotiable securities which also were stolen had been burned to destroy possible clues. A reward of $5,000 and 10 per cent of the money recovered has been offered by security companies but it has not been determined who will get the reward, it was said. The 31 packages were contained in four sacks and it is believed the sacks also were burned. A lock, similar to those used on mail sacks and a partly burned postal registry card were found in the garage in which $75,000 was recovered. The recovered money late today was sent to the federal reserve bank at St. Louis.

The Rev. Mr. Kyle is about 45 years old and came here seven years ago from Keosauqua, Ia. He was rector of the Free Methodist church for three years and for four years has been in the garage business.

Before leaving Keosauqua he pleaded guilty to charges of gambling and "bootlegging" the postoffice inspectors said he told them. He probably will be taken to Danville for arraignment the postoffice inspectors added.

The garage in which the $75,000 was found is about 100 yards from the postoffice, where the robbery is believed to have been committed. The mail sacks had been loaded on a wagon for a delivery to a railroad station and are believed to have been stolen while Sam Moreland, driver of the wagon was in the postoffice telephoning.

MANY INDICTMENTS ARE RETURNED

CHICAGO, Jan. 21.—Forty-two indictments against mail owners, labor heads and carpenter contractors, charging violation of the Sherman anti-trust law were returned by a special federal grand jury today.

The grand jury has been hearing complaints against those indicted for five weeks. The charges alleged that the men named had conspired to keep building materials manufactured outside of Chicago from the Chicago market thereby increasing prices. The indictments were returned before Federal Judge George A. Carpenter.

PERISHABLE FOOD RATES PROHIBITIVE

Chicago, Jan. 21.—Delegates to the American Fruit and Vegetable Growers' Association contending that present rates on perishable food were prohibitive, today passed a resolution asking the United States railroad labor board to correct the present "intolerable" condition.

The resolution declared growers of fruits and vegetables were confronted with a serious situation due to high transportation costs; that rates often equalled or exceeded the cost of production and threatened disaster to the fruit industry.

FORMULATE POLICY FOR DEVELOPMENT OF MERCHANT MARINE

Delegates Believe in the Future of American Shipping
ASSOCIATION
ELECTS OFFICERS

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Formulation of a policy for the development and maintenance of an American Merchant Marine "in spite of all difficulties" brought to a close today the second annual convention of the National Merchant Marine Association. The delegates also voted to send to Congress and the nation a message expressing optimism over the future of American shipping.

An evident desire prevailed in the closing hours to discourage any shipping war with Great Britain or any foreign nations asserting that a trade war would result disastrously.

Adopt Resolutions.

All resolutions embodying the association's policy were unanimously adopted. These proposed among other things immediate and faithful enforcement of the merchant marine act of 1920 and maintenance of the Great Lakes Naval training station. An echo of the charges against British shipping interests made yesterday by Senator Jones of Washington, was heard today but nothing was said to substantiate or renew them.

Elliott H. Goodwin, vice-president of the chamber of commerce of the United States entered a vigorous denial of the senators' statement that the chamber and its magazine, the nation's business, had in any way aided British shipping interests in the United States. The assertion made yesterday by P. A. S. Franklin, president of the International Merchant Marine company that Secretary of the Interior Payne when chairman of the shipping board approved an agreement between his company and the British admiralty drew a denial today from Mr. Payne.

Senator Joseph Ransdell, of Louisiana, was unanimously re-elected president of the association. Vice-presidents elected were: J. Parker Kirlin, New York; William E. Humphrey, Seattle, Wash.; Charles Piez, Chicago, and T. F. Cunningham, New Orleans.

ATTORNEY FOR COAL COMPANY FEARS FOR U. S. EXPORT TRADE

Predicts That Calder Bill Would Work Its Destruction
CANNOT COMPETE WITH BRITISH

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Destruction of the export coal trade of the United States, "absolute and complete" would result from enactment of the Calder coal regulation bill, Ralph Crews, counsel for the Consolidated Coal company, one of the larger producers of bituminous, asserted today at hearings on the measure before the senate manufacturers committee.

American producers, Mr. Crews said, could not guarantee delivery in competition with British mines. If as the bill proposes, authority were given the president and the federal trade commission to declare an emergency in the industry in times of peace, and divert coal shipments to meet it.

Asks for Delay.

George H. Cushing, managing director of the American wholesale coal association asked the committee for three week's delay in consideration of the bill in order that its proposals might be digested by the trade.

"That would mean no chance of enactment this season, that's all," Senator Kenyon, Republican, Iowa, remarked.

Chairman La Follette announced that it was probably the purpose of the committee to allow some additional days for the views of interested parties but that the committee would proceed to a decision immediately thereafter.

Mr. Crews elaborated his statement as to export trade by declaring that "upon the export trade in coal depends the general extension of American foreign trade; and without its continuance any merchant marine will go flat."

W. L. Connell of Scranton, Pa., representing the Anthracite Producers' association will appear before the committee tomorrow.

Want Cost of Farm Lobbying

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Cost to farm organizations of operating Washington headquarters and employing representatives to look after special legislation before Congress, was brought out today in testimony before the house banking committee. Guy Silver, representing the American Farm Bureau Federation with a membership estimated by its officers at 1,500,000 said the total Washington expense last year was around $20,000.

T. C. Atkensen, representing the National Grange, which is said to have one million members, told the committee his organization spent $6,000.

Chairman McFadden explained that no attempt was being made to investigate the farmers' organizations the only desire being to find out how they were financed and the method of instructing their Washington agents as to certain legislation. Mr. Atkensen said the grange had been in existence fifty five years and the only tax on members was ten cents a month each.

Mr. Silver said the federation income last year was $750,000.

NEGROES FIRE ON STREET CARS IN MUSKOGEE, OKLA.

SUBURBAN CARS

(By The Associated Press)
MUSKOGEE, Okla., Jan. 21.—Two Hyde Park street cars, running over the line on which a negro was killed by a motorman last night were fired upon early tonight. All day members of the police force have been called to headquarters for extra duty. Three officers are carrying a rifle and riding all suburban street cars.

Police early tonight had received word that many negroes who reside in the extreme northern portion of the city had held a secret meeting at which preparations were made to dynamite the Hyde Park car driven by Motorman Lynn.

At 9:30 o'clock police were combing the city for a negro who fired upon a white woman. The woman was not injured according to the police.

QUINCY SURGEONS FORM CORPORATION

Plan to Maintain Supply of Radium and Study Its Remedial
Applications—Unable to Purchase Individually Owing to High Cost.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 21.—The Physicians and Surgeons' Association of Quincy was incorporated at the secretary of state's office today for the purpose of disseminating a knowledge of the use of radium and to maintain a hospital in that city. The incorporators were Doctors E. B. Montgomery, F. T. Brenner, John K. Reticker, Warren Peace, Charles W. Pfeffer and W. H. Baker.

Quincy, Ill., Jan. 21.—For the purpose of maintaining a supply of radium at all times, Quincy physicians and surgeons formed the Physicians and Surgeons' Radium Association of Quincy.

Purchase of radium and a study and practice of its remedial applications will be the first step of the organization also included in its articles of incorporation issued today provide that it may erect, establish and maintain a hospital with clinical and pathological laboratories.

Owing to the great cost of small specks of radium it is impossible for physicians as individuals to have a supply of the element and the banding together was decided on to overcome the difficulty.

IOWA PLANNING INDUSTRIAL LAW

DES MOINES, Iowa, Jan. 21.—Resolutions are expected to be brought up in both houses of the state legislature tomorrow calling for a joint session of the general assembly on next Friday for the consideration by the legislature of the bill proposing an industrial court in Iowa. The bill was introduced in the assembly by representative King of East Dodge during the first week of the session. It provides for an institution similar to Governor Allen's in Kansas. The joint assembly, if held, will hear the arguments of a number of experts on the industrial court question.

PRESIDENT ELECT TELLS SOUTH OF HIS ONE AMBITION

Bespeaks New Spirit of United Americanism
SHOULD BE NO
SECTIONAL LINE

(By The Associated Press)
ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 21.—A new spirit of united Americanism, rejecting itself about sectional and partisan divisions, and making secure the industries of the whole nation alike, was bespoken by President-elect Harding tonight in a message to the people of the south.

The message written at the request of Clark Howell, editor of the Atlanta Constitution and Democratic national committee-man for Georgia, was made public today on the arrival of the train which is taking the president-elect to Florida. It follows:

"Of course I have no message to the people of the south that I would not gladly utter to all the United States. Perhaps the south would be interested to know however, of one ambition which I cherish. I want to be instrumental in establishing that complete concord of union which I hold to be essential to the American fulfillment. I realize how the political solidarity of the south followed the unfortunate days of the civil war. I know that solidarity has been encouraged on the one hand and I think I understand the desire to break it on the other hand.

"I do not wish to be in the least specifically a Republican ambition. It is rather to be accredited to a desire to establish complete mutuality of purpose and ambition in America.

"There is little left of the old time hostility and there isn't any occasion for any section of America to pin its aspirations to the fortunes of one party. I think it is fair to assume that all political parties mean to be best for our common country. As a result I believe that many of the Republican policies are calculated to best serve all of America. For instance I believe that there is a great significance in the coming tariff congress to be held in Atlanta. I believe most cordially in prospering America first.

"I do not see how we can retain our home markets upon which American good fortune must be founded and at the same time maintain American standards of living unless we make other peoples with lower standards pay for the privilege of trading in the American markets. Ours is the best market in the world because we are the ablest in consuming a product out of our own boasted American efficiency. The application lies in a perfectly justifiable ambition to make the southland as industrially eminent as the states of the north and east. There ought to be the flame of industry here.

No Excuse for Sectional Line.

"There isn't the slightest excuse for a sectional line in America. We are not to allow one flag and one people with one flag and one people to stand in the way of the fullness of understanding and the utmost cordiality of relationship.

"The people of the south are just as much interested as any other geographical location in the development of the American merchant marine. Out of our abundance of resources and out of our boasted American efficiency ought to come American eminence in world wide trade.

"We ought to send our cargoes from Southland ports just as numerous as we do from Northern and Western ports. Of course as a general rule, we cannot sell where we do not buy, but with a national economic policy safeguarded in protective tariffs and in taking the things, the production of which is not essential to our own good fortune and expand our trade with those of whom we buy to supply our own needs which cannot be supplied here at home.

"I am sure the incoming administration wishes to see, figuratively speaking, every southern port whitened by the sails of commerce and know that our country will amply along with our ear to all the markets of the earth."

FOOD PRICES DROP AT PORTLAND, ORE.

Portland, Ore., Jan. 21.—Butter here today dropped two cents a pound, eggs two cents a dozen, sugar 25 cents a sack wholesale, and a reduction of one cent a loaf for bread, effective Monday was announced. The reduction on bread will bring prices to ten cents for a one pound loaf. The new wholesale price of sugar is $8.65.

Manila, Jan. 21.—Feliciano R. Ferla, assistant attorney general for the Philippine Islands, was dismissed from office today by Governor General Francis Burton Harrison, on charges of favoritism in the prosecution of election fraud cases.

Democrats See Dire Things

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Dipping their brushes into the probability that the republican majority in the Senate would refuse to confirm most of the 20,000 nominations made by President Wilson, some administration officials painted today a picture of a cracking government machine, floundering alone for a time after March 4 with a lot of important cogs missing.

Failure of the republican senators at a secret conference today to reach any decision as to the nominations set the canvass.

Republican leaders weren't inclined to take the picture seriously, however.

Some of those attending the conference said privately there had been a tacit agreement to study conditions in the executive departments and then determine whether failure to keep the democratic appointees in office after March 4 would result in any real bar to the confirmation of those departments.

Confirmation of President Wilson's appointments by the Senate would carry some officials over into the republican administration for terms ranging from one year to years in excess of the four for which Mr. Harding has been elected.

WHITE BELIEVES WORLD NOW READY FOR DISARMAMENT

This is Opinion of Man Who Helped Draft Peace Treaty
PERSHING'S VIEWS
WILL BE SOUGHT

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Another of the American commissioners who helped draft the treaty of Versailles—Henry White, ambassador to France under President Roosevelt, told the House naval committee today that the time was ripe for world disarmament and that the United States should initiate the movement.

General Pershing's views will be sought next Tuesday.

Whether it will hold further hearings after Tuesday has not been determined. Mr. White gave it as his opinion that the great burden of taxation resulting from the world war made the peoples of all nations anxious to cut down on expenditures for armaments. He expressed it that the world was crying for some agreement to limit armaments as a means of reducing taxes.

Should Complete Naval Program.

Discussing the proposed naval holiday, the former ambassador said he did not think the United States should stop the naval construction it now has under way. He added that "questions raised at the conference might show," the "rights of some nations—Great Britain for instance—to a larger navy than others."

Because of the threatened spread of Bolshevism the witness said, France might object to disarmament on land. In this connection he said that the "state of chaos" in which Germany had been kept over reparations was doing more to open the way to Bolshevism than any other single feature.

The time of calling a conference, Mr. White said that should be left to President-elect Harding. He did not think President Wilson should call it as the fact that he would retire on March 4 might lead the other nations not to take the invitation seriously.

CLYNE HITS THE HOME BREWERS

CHICAGO, Jan. 21.—District Attorney Clyne announced a new blow to knock the best out of home brew today. Hereafter according to Mr. Clyne the landlord of any tenant making home brew will be fined $1,000.

The fine Mr. Clyne explained should really be placed against the amateur brewer, but since many of them are unable to pay and have not sufficient property to attach, the fine will be levied against the landlord.

"The saloon act holds an owner guilty of law violations on his premises," Mr. Clyne said. "If the tenant can't pay, the landlord must."

TRIAL COMES TO AN ABRUPT ENDING

SIoux CITY, Iowa, Jan. 21.—Trial of George P. Johnson on an indictment charging him with embezzlement of $70,000 while "fiscal agent" of the Alfalfa and Corn Milling company, came to an abrupt ending in district court today, when Judge Jasper quashed the indictment on the ground it was faulty.

The indictment charged Johnson with larceny by embezzlement. The case it was said, will be resubmitted to the March grand jury. Johnson has been in jail since his arrest in Chicago.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 21.—Raymond Burleigh, said to be the youngest soldier to serve with the American Expeditionary Force, was married here Tuesday to Miss Corinne Burton, it became known today. He gave his age as 21 and the bride as 18. Burleigh is said to have enlisted in 1917 at the age of 11. He served 22 months in France.

ACCUSE ENGLAND OF TRYING TO REVIVE RELIGIOUS STRIFE

Charge is Made by Miss Louie Bennett, Protestant Woman From Dublin—Military Attacking Nuns and Priests—Allege That Forcible Entrance is Made to Nunneries

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—England is fostering religious intolerance and suppressing industry in Ireland in an effort to prevent self-determination, Miss Louie Bennett, a Protestant woman from Dublin, told the commission of the committee of one hundred investigating conditions in Ireland.

Attacks by the British military on Catholic churches and on nuns and priests are increasing, Miss Bennett said, with the intention of reviving the spirit of religious intolerance between Catholic and Protestant with view of preventing Irish opinion from uniting.

In discussing her charges of the suppression of industry, which, she asserted involves the question of the satisfactory solution of international problems the witness described the destruction of creameries and other co-operative industry.

Testimony in support of Miss Bennett's charges was also given by Miss Caroline M. Townsend. Both are members of the Irish women's international league and they presented letters and documents to support their charges.

Enter Nunneries Forcibly.

Miss Bennett told of two recent alleged forcible entrances into Dublin nunneries one of which was of an exclusive Catholic order, which excluded even relatives of the nuns from visiting the building, allowing communication only thru iron barred doors.

Miss Townsend gave what members of the commission pronounced the most complete statements so far presented regarding the withdrawal by England of local grants. These grants from taxes paid by the Irish, she said had been dolled out by England to support hospitals, asylums and similar institutions but now are being used by England to pay members of British armed forces for injury or damage suffered as result of "malicious injury" done by Irish people.

"Police have been solemnly awarded hundreds of pounds of this money held back from our hospitals and asylums," Miss Bennett said, also in discussing the subject, "because of kicks in the shins received or alleged to have been received, while arresting a drunken man."

CANADIAN PRAISES LEAGUE PEACE TREATY

Most Practical Experiment in Providing Substitute for War—All Nations Must Help to Save Civilization.

(By The Associated Press)
New York, Jan. 21.—N. W. Rowson, former president of the privy council of Canada speaking here tonight at a dinner of the Canadian club characterized the league of nations as the most hopeful and practical experiment yet tried for providing a substitute for war.

The consideration which was finally accorded the views of Canada, former president of the United States was one of the most hopeful and significant features of the assembly judged as a world organization, he declared.

"Your press," he continued, speaking of American newspapers, "has stated that the Canadian delegates at Geneva presented not only the Canadian view, but also that of the United States on many questions."

Mr. Rowson said Canada, associated politically with Great Britain and Geographically with the United States, should assist in interpreting the one to the other and in promoting a cordial understanding and wholehearted co-operation.

A COMPLIMENT FOR CONGRESS.
Charles G. Dawes in a recent interview defended Congress from the many charges made against that body for extravagance and mismanagement of governmental affairs. Mr. Dawes said that most of the profligate methods complained of are really the sins of the executive branch of the government. It is a new thing for members of Congress to have a word said in their defense in these days, when there seems to be the growing habit of criticism as related to both Congress and the Senate.

THE GOLDEN RULE IN BUSINESS.
The golden rule in business—that is the theme often chosen these days, both by ministers and laymen for the discussion of questions as to the relations between capital and labor. But thus far there unfortunately does not seem to be an exact agreement as to how the golden rule should be applied in these relationships of employers and employee. The viewpoint is not the same and before the golden rule can be applied there must come the ability to look at all the problems involved from the other fellow's viewpoint.

One of the most interesting experiments of the day is being made by those corporations who are according to employees a full 50 per cent power in the decision of all matters relating to their working hours and wages. In fact, some corporations are according to their workers full 50 per cent influence in directing the business.

Only time can tell the result of this experiment. One thing is certain, nothing better than the golden rule as a remedy can be applied.

WELL FOUNDED CRITICISM
"Too much sex stuff in the movies" is advertised as the leading article in this month's edition of a well known magazine. This is only one channel thru which the public is being told that film does needs some real censorship. Possibly censorship is not just the right word, for it is going to be difficult to secure the right results thru legal processes.

The changes needed in the moving picture business must come about thru public sentiment, and the quicker the public shows its disapproval and lack of interest in pictures of an objectionable class, the sooner will the evil be abated. No one can deny that as affairs are today there is "too much sex stuff in the movies."

SEEKING OUT THE FACTS
The members of the Morgan county board are realizing that the health department of the county in its relationships to dependency and charity constitutes one of the big problems of the county. It is a matter for congratulation on the part of the people that members of the board are studying this question with the evident purpose of getting at the real facts and then handling the situation in a way that seems the most feasible and the best for all concerned.

It is gratifying also to note the desire of the board to have citizens generally co-operate with them in studying the situation and arriving at the best conclusion. It is very certain that the board has not thought of taking any snap judgment in this matter. The members are seeking the best advice obtainable and then will formulate their own opinion and do that which they think is best for the interest of the county.

COALS TO NEWCASTLE.
"It would be ridiculous to require that a tariff bill framed by republicans should be along lines suggested by a democratic tariff commission," declares the republic publicity association, and continues:

"In a burst of self-adulation the United States Tariff Commission has issued a press notice assuring the public that its vigilance respecting the tariff question has been unwavering, that the ways and means committee now holding hearings on tariff revision 'has before it regarding each industry included in each schedule comprehensive information unbiased by personal or political advantage or policy,' and that the committee, prepared by an impartial body, present without suggestion of tariff policy or rates of duty the main facts and figures pertinent to tariff legislation."

"Unfortunately, the ways and means committee is not so certain that the tariff data prepared and submitted to it by the tariff commission represent the findings of an impartial body, and that is one reason why the committee is justified in considering the data as merely supplemental to what may be secured from the witnesses now appearing before it. If the tariff commission should feel pined at being relegated to a secondary role in the matter of tariff investigation, its members may thank the nation who appointed them, for Mr. Wilson's violation of the express provision of the law which authorized the commission, by giving his own party adherents a prepondering influence in that body, naturally causes a republican Congress to regard the board with suspicion."

Rippling Rhymes By Walt Mason

Realism.
When I have filled my fountain pen and found some folkscap blue, I'll write a tale of tinsome men, and tinsome women, too. I'll chronicle their tinsome deeds, the tinsome things they say; 'twill be so dull the sport who reads will throw the book away. Some little ten cent human soul I'll analyze with glee, and hoist it on a twelve-foot pole, so all the world may see. And dead game sports who read my book will rent their heads and say, "Oh, let the public hangman cook so punk and perce a tale!" But book reviewers, bulging-browed, will praise it, line by line; they'll say, "One book above the crowd stands forth, sublime and fine. The tale begins where it should end, and ends where it should start; no heroes through its pages went, no villain's grudge the heart; it has no action and no plot, no motive can be found; and yet the volume hits the spot, its technique is so sound. This is no tale of blood and bones, but one in which we and the soul of Pete Augustus Jones described as 'twas designed.'" If you are tired of stirring tales where villains get the hook, and virtue in the end prevails, wait till I write my book.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Foster Entertain Friends
Mr. and Mrs. George W. Foster entertained a company of about one hundred of their friends at their home north of Alexander Thursday evening. The evening was spent with cards, dancing and music. Roland and Ed of this city furnished the music. The Foster home was tastefully decorated with roses being used with good effect. At 11 o'clock a delicious catered supper was served. Mrs. Foster was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Harry Foster, Mrs. Swain, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Newham, Oddy, Mrs. Mary Dunlap, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Clark Green, Mrs. S. E. Bergsneider.

Grace Church Young People Entertained
Mrs. H. L. Griswold entertained a company of the younger girls of Grace church at her home last evening. About forty were present and Mrs. Griswold was assisted by Mrs. W. E. Hall, Mrs. Herbert Capps and Mrs. E. C. Lam.

Games were enjoyed during part of the evening, followed by a short program. Miss Elva Osborne gave a pleasing saxophone solo; Miss Eunice Williamson read an amusing story and Miss Wilma Williamson sang two songs in an effective way.

Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Lambert presented the subject of a club or social organization, and after brief discussion it was agreed to hold a meeting next Wednesday over the tea tables at Grace church, at 5:15 o'clock, and perfect an organization, decide on its purpose and name, and elect officers. Mrs. Griswold served delicious refreshments and the pleasant evening ended with a chorus of favorite songs.

Shiloh Aid Met With Mrs. James Black
The Shiloh Ladies Aid Society entertained sixty of their friends Thursday evening at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. James Black, north of the city. Shortly after the guests arrived delicious refreshments were served in cafeteria style, after which the following program was rendered.

Instrumental music—Miss Irene Mason.
Songs—Mrs. Bridgeman.
Music: Piano and violin—Misses Mabel and Blanche Phillips.
Dialogue: "No Peddlers Wanted"—Mrs. Luella McGhee, Mrs. Edith Carpenter, Miss Emma Dodswordh, Messrs. Cecil McGhee, Edgar Mills, Roy Black and Russell McGhee.
Song—Alvin Carpenter and Frank Dodswordh; violin accompanists, Charles Gaines and William Lindsey.

At the close of the program a social hour followed. Before the guests departed for their homes a vote of thanks was extended Mr. and Mrs. Black for their hospitality. The next meeting of the Ladies will be held with Miss Emma Dodswordh, February 17th.

Westminster Guild Met Friday Afternoon
Westminster Guild met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. Guthrie on Park street. The leader was Miss Margaret Moore, who presented the question of relief in the Near East. Miss Moore's experiences overseas and the fact that she has a near friend who has been a missionary in one of the Near East countries made it possible for the speaker to give a personal presentation of conditions which the members of the Guild found very informing. One could not listen to this talk without having a clear knowledge of the intense need for relief work.

The annual election of officers was held, resulting in the choice of the following:
President—Miss Claire Stevenson.
Vice president—Mrs. Henry Kamm.
Secretary—Mrs. James Bentley.
Treasurer—Miss Louise Holmes.

These officers have served very acceptably during the past year.

Clio Circle of Litterberry Church Met.
Miss May Myers was hostess Friday afternoon to members of the Clio Circle of the Litterberry Christian church. The members were present in goodly numbers and there were also six guests present. Victoria music opened the program, followed by Scripture reading by Mrs. William Hull. Following a prayer by Mrs. Harry Martin came two interesting papers, one by Miss Emma Johnson and the other by Miss May Martin. An informing talk was made by Mrs. Frank Green of Strawn's Crossing, who told of the work of the federation of woman's clubs.

At the business session reports of the past year's activities were given and then came the election of officers, resulting in the choice of the following:
President—Miss May Myers.
Vice president—Mrs. Maude Martin.
Secretary—Mrs. Claude Pote-fish.
Treasurer—Miss May Martin.

Following the program came a social hour and at this time the hostess served very excellent refreshments.

Westminster Brotherhood Met at Davis Home.

Members of the men's brotherhood of Westminster church were guests last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley I. Davis in Woodland Place. When the Brotherhood was organized last Sunday the invitation was accepted to hold the first meeting at the home of Mr. Davis, who is president of the organization. Much of the last night was spent in the discussion of working plans for the new organization.

In addition there was a social hour with music and at 10:30 o'clock Mrs. Davis served an excellent supper. The men in the company found the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Davis of a most generous kind and the first session of the Brotherhood gave promise that it would be one of the successful and helpful church organizations. Mrs. Henry Kamm assisted Mrs. Davis in entertaining.

Thousand Delegates Will Gather in St. Louis Next Month—All Denominations Represented.
H. C. Armstrong was in Jacksonville yesterday to talk to ministers and laymen with reference to Christian unity gatherings which will be held in St. Louis Feb. 2, 3 and 4. The sessions will be held at the Second Baptist church and it is expected that a thousand delegates representing all the denominations in the middle west will attend this conference.

Mr. Armstrong while in the city spent some time with Rev. M. L. Pontius, as the two were students together at Yale University some years ago. Mr. Armstrong while here presented various facts about the big gathering.

The St. Louis committee is composed of Rev. F. F. Johnson, Protestant Episcopal bishop, chairman; Rev. Dr. W. C. Bittling, pastor, Second Baptist church, vice-chairman; Rev. Dr. D. C. MacLeod, pastor Central Presbyterian church, secretary; Rev. A. H. Armstrong, secretary of the St. Louis Church Federation, assistant secretary, and Rev. George A. ALL TIME HEALTH OFFICER IS PROPOSED County Board Will Give This Matter Serious Consideration—Citizens Committee Named to Work With Board.

There is a prospect that Morgan county may have an all time health officer, as the result of a decision of the Morgan county board of commissioners. Some time ago the city administration considered the matter of an all time health officer for Jacksonville and at that time a conference was held with county officials with the thought in mind that possibly the city and county might act jointly in this proposal. However, nothing definite was done.

In more recent weeks the county board in studying county questions relating to health has given more and more thought to the all county health officer idea. Friday Dr. W. J. Girard, a representative of the state department of health was in Jacksonville to confer with the board with reference to certain conditions in Alexander precinct, and during the day there was discussion of the all time health officer. As a result of this discussion Commissioners Wheeler, Mawson and Osborne decided to thoroughly consider the proposal for an all time health officer, and to handle the health affairs of the county in this way, if an investigation of the conditions seems to warrant their considering the whole problem, the board decided upon the appointment of an all county citizens' committee to meet with the board and go into the whole proposition. The desire of the board is to have the whole county fully represented but to avoid too large a committee, citizens were named not from each precinct of the county but from different parts of the county, in a way which the board feels will be entirely representative. The persons selected for conference on this matter are:

Alexander—Clark Stevenson.
Chapin—T. O. Markham.
Concord—George Doltick.
Franklin and Nortonville—Warren Luttrell.
Litterberry and Arcadia—William Crum.
Lynnville—Fred J. Schofield.
Meredosa—L. F. Berger.
Murrayville—R. D. Mawson.
Sinclair and Prentice—E. E. Hart.
Woodson—Joseph Setz.
Waverly—C. F. Wemple and Wilson Smith.
Jacksonville—T. A. Chapin, James McGinnis, E. E. Crabtree, Edward Brennan, Dr. H. C. Wolman, Rev. W. E. Sponts, Charles T. Mackness, Rev. M. L. Pontius and A. C. Metcalf.

A meeting of this committee with the board has been set for Wednesday, Jan. 26, at 12:30 o'clock noon. This time was chosen so that non-resident members who find it necessary to return home on early afternoon trains may do so.

As indicated, it will be the function of this committee to consider with the county board all available data in this connection it should be mentioned that Gov. Small in his message to the general assembly urged the all-county health officer plan and it is the general understanding that a law has been framed making the appointment of such an officer compulsory. Here it is quite probable that such a health organization will be effected before the enactment of the law.

1921 INCOME TAX FACTS YOU SHOULD KNOW

Partnership and personal service corporation returns are closely scrutinized by the Internal Revenue, and in them have been discovered numerous errors.

Partnerships as such are not subject to their own tax, but are required to make returns on Forms 1065 showing gross and net income. The net income of a partnership is computed in the same manner and on the same basis as the net income of an individual, except that deductions for contributions to charitable, religious and scientific organizations are not permitted.

Individual members are taxed on the distributive shares of net income from partnerships, whether distributed or not, and are required to include such shares in their individual return of income, even though they may not have been actually received. It infrequently happens that the figures in the individual return and partnership return do not coincide, in which event there is trouble for both the taxpayer and bureau.

Must File Returns.
Partnership returns must be filed, even though the firm had no net income for the year. The return must show the name and address of each partner and his share of net income. Anyone of the partners may sign and swear to the return, which may cover the calendar fiscal year, according to the firm's method of accounting.

Requirements of the revenue act with reference to partnerships apply also to personal service corporations, which, though exempt from tax, must make a return of gross and net income on Form 1065, or even if there was no net income. A personal service corporation is a corporation whose income is to be ascribed primarily to the activities of the principal owners or stockholders who are themselves regularly engaged in the active conduct of the affairs of the corporation, and in which capital (whether borrowed or invested) is not a material income-producing factor.

When a corporation is classified as a personal service corporation, its earnings must be derived principally from compensation for personal services rendered by its owners and stockholders. Merchandising or trading either directly or indirectly in commodities or the services of others is not rendering personal service.

When the principal owners and stockholders do not render the principal part of the services, but merely supervise a force of employees, the corporation is not a personal service corporation.

To determine who are the principal owners or stockholders no definite percentage of stock or interest in the corporation can be prescribed. Treasury regulations provide that no corporation may make a return as a personal service corporation unless at least 80 per cent of its stock is held by those regularly engaged in the active conduct of its affairs.

Use of Capital.
If the use of capital is necessary or more than incidental, capital as an income-producing factor, and the corporation is not a personal service corporation, it carries on a business which ordinarily requires the use of a substantial amount of capital, whether invested or borrowed.

In general, the larger the amount of capital actually used the stronger is the evidence that capital is a necessary and is a material income-producing factor, and that the corporation is not a personal service corporation.

The following corporations are expressly excluded from classification as personal service corporations: Foreign corporations; corporations 50 per cent of whose gross income derived from trading as a principal; corporations 50 per cent of whose gross income consists of gains, profits, commissions, or other income derived from government contracts made between April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918.

THE "RED TAXI" LINE
The "Red Taxi" Line, headquarters at the corner of West and Morgan streets, was sold Friday by A. L. Bryant to R. R. Thread of Morrisville, Ill., who took possession at once.

About two years ago Mr. Bryant purchased the property at the corner mentioned and opened a garage and supply station, his slogan being, "Everything for a Ford." The taxi line was added about a year later, and by close attention to business both ventures have proven a success.

Mr. Thread, the new owner, comes to Jacksonville with strong recommendations from his home city. He has had long experience in the business undertaken, and states that as soon as he gets his bearings it is his intention to add a baggage transfer and parcel delivery line and to remain open for service night and day.

It has been known for some time that Mr. Bryant wished to sell out and return to the East so as to be with his children who for the past year have been living with their grandparents. As there are several other business matters yet to be closed up Mr. Bryant said it would be two or three weeks before he can get away. He has not decided upon his future line or work.

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers for the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, yellow look, dull eyes, pimples, constipation, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive, slow, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit.

Declares Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to Be the Best Medicine for Girls and Women

Hamilton, Ohio.—"I had such awful pains in my back I could hardly stand on my feet and was never without a headache. If I walked up town, I thought I would drop and many times I felt so bad I had to go to bed and I was not able to do much of my housework. I would have hemorrhages every two weeks and drag my body down. I had been feeling badly for three years and had two of the best doctors in the city, but I kept getting worse and only weighed 12 pounds. I saw your advertisement and I took eight boxes of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Tablets. Four bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Purifier and your Liver Pills and no need of improvement right away. Now I weigh 188 pounds and feel fine. Everybody tells me how well I look and asks me what I took and I always say, 'Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the best medicine in the world for any sickness to which girls and women are subject.' I will always have a good word for your medicine."—Mrs. JOSEPH WILLIMAN, 722 South 9th Street, Hamilton, Ohio.

ILLINOIS DEFEATS LINCOLN COLLEGE

Win Fast Game by Score of 23 to 18—Mellon Stars for Blue and White.

Lincoln fell before Coach Harmon's Blue and White five at David Prince gymnasium Friday night in a fast and exciting game, the final count being 23 to 18. Incidentally it was Illinois' third straight victory.

The game was full of action as the Lincoln five proved to be a fighting bunch and were on their toes all the time. During the first half the teams raced neck and neck, the score at the close of the half being 13 to 12 in favor of Illinois.

However, Illinois should have had more points as time and again shots went inside the hoop and then bounced out. In the second half Illinois scored two baskets before Lincoln finally counted with a free throw. Illinois maintained her advantage through the half and only in the last few minutes of play when coach Harmon pulled out his entire squad and inserted second string men did Lincoln break thru Illinois defense for two counters.

Illinois looked good last night. The men exhibited some excellent team work and worked the ball down the floor in fine shape. They also outclassed the visitors in passing and in accuracy in basket shooting, the throw work was not as good as they have shown.

Mellon was the star of the Illinois team. He not only caged six baskets but pledged the floor well, passed in excellent form and played a whole of a game on defense. The big fellow looks like he will develop into one of the best centers in the conference before the season closes.

Antrobis and Farrell started at the forward positions and while they played good basketball they were not up to form in basket shooting. Jones and Cully took care of the guard positions in fine shape. The visiting forwards were seldom able to break thru and most of their shots were hurried by their fast work. Harney, Brown, Knoepfel, Slack and Burrus also did good work when they were sent into the fray.

For Lincoln Alberts and Barget played a good game. Alberts was up against a hard proposition opposed to Mellon but he played hard all the time. Merry, at right forward did some good work and was more successful in his free throw efforts than Antrobis. The score:

Waverly Troupes Athens 26 to 10

Win Game in Decisive Fashion on Athens Floor—Special Train Carried Waverly Rooters—Knight Dislocates Knee.

Athens, Jan. 21.—Waverly High demonstrated that she has one of the strongest basketball five in Central Illinois by decisively defeating Athens high here tonight by a score of 26 to 10.

Waverly outclassed the local tossers in all departments of the game and were never in danger thruout. Gorman, Redfern, Knight and Crum were the point makers for Waverly. They played a wonderful game and displayed the best team work seen here this season.

It was an expensive victory for Waverly, however, as Knight, one of the strongest players on the Waverly squad, suffered a dislocated knee in the latter part of the game. Crum then went to center, Jarrett to guard and Redfern to forward.

Waverly rooters to the number of 155 came to Athens in a special train and furnished lots of "pep" cheering their team with yells during the game. The score:

Win Fast Game by Score of 29 to 23—Victors Aided by Seymour and Teaney of Franklin.

The Knights of Columbus defeated the Waverly Independents at Liberty hall Friday night by a score of 29 to 23. The game was a hard fought, the score at the end of the first half being 13 to 12 in favor of the Knights.

Waverly was assisted in the game by Seymour and Teaney of Franklin. Had it not been for these players it is probable the visitors would not have made nearly so good a showing. Teaney especially played well and scored eight of Waverly's points.

For the Knights Zell and Clancy did some excellent work and were a large factor in the local victory. Carson played a good offensive game and Cain did some excellent guarding until he was sent to the side lines for personal fouls.

Costello took his place but did not have much opportunity as the game was then nearly over. Woulfe, the opposed by an experienced player in Seymour played a good game at center. Considering the weather the game was witnessed by a fair sized crowd and lots of enthusiasm was displayed.

ROTARY CLUB HEARD INTERESTING TALKS

State Health Board Representative Emphasized Worth of Prevention Work—A Plea for Supervised Play—Marionettes Are to Come.

There was a symposium of speakers at the Friday luncheon of the Rotary club, in that the program time was occupied by several instead of one. This group included Dr. W. J. Girard of the state board of health; Dr. J. R. Harker, T. M. Tomlinson, and Rev. M. L. Pontius, the club president. Incidentally a committee of five was named to act for the club in the proposal of bringing a Marionette entertainment to Jacksonville. The committee includes Frank J. Heintz, V. R. Riley, J. G. Ames, H. A. Perrin and A. C. Metcalf.

This entertainment will be given here February 13. Primarily the attraction is for the young people of the city, but it will be almost as interesting for adults, according to the reports that come from other cities. Any profit made from the entertainment will be put into the fund of the boys and girls club house at Mercedosa. A Marionette entertainment is sometimes described as a puppet show, only on a much larger scale, electrified and otherwise brought down to date by the agencies of flesh and blood actors, in addition to the electrical features.

Prevention the Thing.

Dr. Girard spoke only briefly, referring particularly to the efforts of the state department of health in the control of contagious diseases and in quarantine restrictions for the purpose of preventing disease. He urged upon his hearers the thought that it is the duty of all good citizens to assist in the enforcement of laws relating to health. For the result is a matter of common concern. He said that in these days, with so many cases of measles, diphtheria and scarlet fever occurring throughout the state that it is more necessary than ever to give careful heed to the state laws and regulations relating to health matters.

Dr. Harker recently attended a Rotary club luncheon in New York city and T. M. Tomlinson was present at a similar gathering in St. Louis Thursday. Both spoke briefly of these gatherings and the spirit that prevailed. A ten minute talk Mr. Pontius gave new emphasis to the question of supervised recreation. He again brought the thought that the problem of the boy and girl is the greatest one that Rotarians and all citizens face. He said that it was lamentably true that the average father is so occupied with his business affairs that he does not give to his boy the companionship that is needed, and that would be beneficial. To fill this want, supervised recreation agencies come in and where the work is well done it is significantly effective.

Supervised Recreation.

Mr. Pontius made a statement which would have sounded much more radical a few years ago than it does today. He said that as would much rather have a boy of his dance, play cards, pool and billiards under supervision and with proper surroundings than he would to have him be in the employ of a dishonest man or in constant association with men or boys of evil habits. His thought was that in times past there has been too much emphasis laid on not doing these particular things, while others of equal or greater importance have been neglected.

But the point was that supervised or directed recreation is the desirable thing and yet the warning was sounded that the recreation must not be followed to such an extent that initiative on the part of the boy and the girl is killed or stunted. Mr. Pontius then mentioned the garden club to which he made previous reference in an address to the Women's club. That organization is considering the matter of starting such clubs with a view of occupying the attention of boys and girls and at the same time beautifying the city. Mr. Pontius expressed the hope that "the work is begun that it will result in the earnest effort of the Rotarians."

THE MARIONETTES COMING TO CITY

Rotary Club Has Secured Famous Company for Two Entertainments Here February 15th.

The Rotary club has secured Lillian Owens and her New York Marionette Co. for a matinee and evening performance on Tuesday, Feb. 15. Their coming will be a joyous and hilarious treat for every child and adult. These puppets are charming little creatures, ranging in size from 18 inches to 3 feet. They sing, talk and dance. Their actions on the stage are controlled by wires which trained actors, hidden from view, manipulate. Each puppet requires an individual actor to guide his movements and say his speeches, so the company will bring eight actors, its own stage equipment, scenery, lighting effects and music.

Tony Sarg, a well known artist and illustrator, a few years ago made some marvelous Marionettes and presented them to delighted audiences in New York, which were fascinated with the unique and wonderful presentation. Miss Owens, who was a long time associate of Mr. Sarg, designed and built the dolls which she and her company will bring to Jacksonville. The scenery is by Michael Carr, an associate of Gordon Craig. The company is direct from the Neighborhood playhouse and a long run in and around Boston.

It is the first time that citizens in the west have had the opportunity to see these famous Marionettes and the Rotary club secured the company on its journey from Chicago to St. Louis.

The matinee is replete with things children love. The main feature is a grand presentation of Jack and the Beanstalk. Jack, the Giant, the Milky Way, the Cow, Jack's mother and the Giant's mother all appear on the stage. Even the beanstalk grows before your eyes. Other marvels for the youngsters are the funny antics of Polly and her pals, and a side-splitting circus stunt furnished by Sambo and his trick mule, Jenny.

In the evening the play "Hynd Horn," a whimsical musical drama, full of tenderness and corks good humor, will be presented. This is a dramatization of a famous old English ballad. In the play the king pines along and also speaks in rhymes. There are many funny situations and a tragedy. Hynd Horn, the hero, is banished to the sea. A real storm arises, lightning flashes, thunder roars, the ship tosses to and fro and poor Hynd sings bitter songs of grief over his lost princess. But fortune turns and the play closes with tinkling fairy music and of course a happy wedding.

A rich pictorial sketch, full of gaiety and loveliness, will also be given, and a genuine imported 300 year old ballet beauty will dance against a background of riotous color.

Miss Owens has shown herself a rare artist in painting the landscape and scenery for these mimic plays, investing the characters and bring them to a point where a twist of the controlling wires brings the puppets to life. The Rotary club brings the Marionettes primarily to give the people of Jacksonville, especially the boys and girls, an opportunity of seeing the novel and unique Marionettes, but any profit had from the entertainment will be used for the further development of the camp cottage for boys and girls at Mercedosa. F. J. Heintz of the Rotary club committee received a wire message last night making certain the coming of the company on the date indicated.

LOCAL MEN ATTENDED ST. LOUIS CONFERENCE

T. M. Tomlinson, Henry and William Deutsch Return From Clothing Men's Conference at St. Louis—Present Situation in Industry Discussed.

T. M. Tomlinson, Henry and William Deutsch of this city are among clothing merchants who attended the midwinter conference of the Association of Retail Clothiers held in St. Louis. A much better feeling was in evidence at this convention than has been true at some others held in recent months. Those in attendance fully believe that deflation is practically at an end and that conditions are rapidly nearing normal.

In many industries, such as clothing, there are evidences that for the time being conditions may even be sub-normal, that prices now offered by retail clothiers are lower than may prevail during the spring and summer. It is because of this situation and the riches of the country at large, the shortage of stocks in many fields, such as railroad supplies, building and road materials, that the men in attendance at this gathering felt that the time is ripe for a prosperity drive that will banish the psychological depression that remains and will bring back business and employment speedily. Such were the chief thoughts developed at the conference, as told yesterday by Mr. Tomlinson.

"There is no question," said Mr. Tomlinson, "but what the present prices for clothing are the result of a landslide—and instead of stopping at that level justified by existing production and wages, they carried on to lower extremes that justify the assertion that unless there is an important revision in production and wages, during the coming months will find an increase in retail clothing prices."

"There must be an increase of production and a decrease of manufacturing costs before clothing prices can be permanently held at their present levels."

"That the country is ripe for a Prosperity Drive is shown by the facts. Prices are reduced. Cotton is down to pre-war levels. Building construction is long delayed by the war, must soon resume. Railroad supplies are far below requirements. There are 12,000,000 tons of rail alone required by the roads. There will be a huge program started soon for the construction of highways. Crops are big. Copper stocks are low. Retail lumber yards are empty. On every side you find the signs that say that prosperity will resume just as soon as we begin to believe it and start to work for it."

"A revision of taxes," continued Mr. Tomlinson "must come. The tax legislation of 1918 was perhaps the worst we could have had insofar as its effects on business were concerned."

"And there should, also, be a universally understood program for a resumption of buying. This was clearly pointed out at the conference. If the consumer stops buying, the retailer ceases his purchases. That forces the manufacturer to stop and curtails the mills—and eventually ends up with vast numbers of unemployed by instead of a mean toward continued stable prosperity."

"It's time to sell—time to get back to business"—time for all of us to awaken to the fact that prosperity is here for all who will get out and hustle for it."

EXAMS ARE OVER!

High school students are breathing huge sighs of relief today. Exams were over yesterday for at least a few months—that is till the next ones roll around in the spring.

The High school has been a busy place for the past week and for the ones who were "on the fence" the last few days have been trying to say the least. But its all over now and according to High school officials most of the students did good work and the percentage of failures is comparatively small.
